

(Senior) IT Consultant, Solution Architect and Development-Team Lead for Data Management

iDeal Technologies is seeking to hire a full-time (Senior) IT Consultant, Solution Architect and Development-Team Lead for Data Management to join our talented team in Prishtina. That is why we want to promote talent and provide them with the best possible support in their professional lives.

Duties and responsibilities

- IT Consulting and Project management of Data Management projects as Informatica, Cloudera and Denodo as well as taking over the responsibility for solution architecture
- Technical Solution Development and implementation of individual data management strategies and initiatives for our customers. This is based on data governance, data quality, data integration, master data and big data management and analytics to empower our customers for data monetarization. Envelop enterprise architecture into solution design
- Supporting the CDO Chief Data Officer by driving data harmonization strategy
- Collaboration with the team and the customer by using Confluence and Jira at our mainly agile projects
- Taking over responsibility as SME, Stream Lead or Development-Team Lead
- Involvement in Business development, sales- and marketing activities
- Project dependent travel willingness – approximately once per month – combined with flexible work times are expected
- We also offer, as an expatriate, to work for several months abroad

Benefits

As part of our international iDeal Technology Solutions team, you will work at our modern offices, onsite at our customers or remote at home, on innovative Solutions for our big European clients. Keeping a strong focus on personal development, we offer free education courses with certifications in data management as in specific solutions from Informatica, Cloudera and Denodo and due to our top costumers are in DACH region, everybody will receive an individual multi-year German training. Further trainings will be aligned, according to employees' wishes and project demands. On top to a basic salary, we are offering a variable pay. Annual bonuses based on individual targets and success fees at successful project closures.

Skills and requirements

- Bachelor or Master in IT as well as first relevant experience in the role as IT Consultant
- Profound knowledge in object-oriented programming, design patterns, DB's, API's, interfaces, Microservices, architecture and communication patterns
- Knowledge of agile and waterfall project management Tools as Confluence, Jira, Azure Devops, Microsoft Projects as well as expert in Microsoft Office
- Experience with Data Management tools as Informatica, Cloudera and Denodo as well as previous development experience using Java, J2EE, CI CD platforms, tools such as Jenkins, Dockers, Kubernetes, etc., event bus middleware platforms or .Net, C#, Web API, WCF, Microservices would be an advantage

Please send us your CV and related documents to office@ideal-t.com.