Technical Implementation and Operation (DevOps) in Data Management

iDeal Technologies is seeking to hire a full-time Technical Implementation and Operation (DevOps) in Data Management to join our talented team in Pristina. That is why we want to promote talent and provide them with the best possible support in their professional lives.

Duties and responsibilities
- Implementation and Operation (DevOps) of Informatica, Cloudera and Denodo Solutions, develop individual Solutions for customers data management strategy and create and maintain documentation of those technical assets
- Collaboration with the team and the customer by using Confluence and Jira at our mainly agile projects
- Project dependent travel willingness – approximately once or twice per year – combined with flexible work times, are expected. We also offer, as an expatriate, to work for several months abroad

Benefit
As part of our international iDeal Technologies team, you will work at our modern offices, onsite at our customers or remote at home, on innovative Solutions for our big European clients. Keeping a strong focus on personal development, we offer free education courses with certifications in data management as in specific solutions from Informatica, Cloudera and Denodo and due to our top costumers are in DACH region, everybody will receive an individual multi-year German training. Further trainings will be aligned, according to employees' wishes and project demands.
On top to a basic salary, we are offering a variable pay. Annual bonuses based on individual targets and success fees at successful project closures.

Skills and requirements
- Bachelor or Master in IT as well as first relevant experience in the role as Developer
- Profound knowledge in object-oriented programming, design patterns, DB's, API's, interfaces, Microservices, architecture and communication patterns
- Experience with Data Management tools as Informatica, Cloudera and Denodo, Knowledge of agile and waterfall project management Tools as Confluence, Jira, Azure Devops as well es previous development experience using Java, J2EE, CI CD platforms, tools such as Jenkins, Dockers, Kubernetes, etc., event bus middleware platforms or .Net, C#, Web API, WCF, Microservices would be an advantage

Please send us your CV and related documents to office@ideal-t.com.